About the Organization. Move This World (MTW) is a global nonprofit that uses creative expression as a vehicle to transform conflict, violence and bullying in communities. In partnership with schools, community-based organizations, families and corporations, MTW has worked with over 15,000 individuals across 22 cities on four continents to build and connect more emotionally resilient communities.

Our hallmark program is an innovative, evidence-based curriculum that engages students Pre-K-12, educators, administrators, families, and corporate leaders in creative-based activities that promote empathy, mediation skills, and conflict transformation. In this way, MTW fosters cumulative skill building that grows with the individual and produces measurable impact to promote social change through the art of movement.
